Other riders either cancelled their entries before the day, failed to turn up on th day (2 of) or their machines failes scrutineering due to incorrect tyres (3 of).

The award of the "Spirit of Timber Woods" Trophy was decided by the organising team. 61 year old Brian Clark of the Double Five Kent Club wins it for completing the distance on his 1954 225cc Francis Barnet with an ear-to-ear grin, coming in 18th and ahead of many more suitable and newer bikes. Definitely in the spirit of Timber Woods!

The best rider of over 50 years is Norman Gray of the Haslemere Club who finished in second place overall.

The Team Award goes to "Thawed" (R. Thompson, Richard Dawe and Peter Gedye) on 49 points, two points lass than Fukarwe (Norman Gray, John Sapsard and John Johns). Third place team is Tortoise (John Eveson, Clive Boughtflower and John Barnett) on 53 points,

Many thanks to the Started and Observers on the eleven sections and the Passage Check. They were:

Ron Parkin, Reg Playfoot, Dave Parry, Mark Lavelle, Colin Parkin, Dave and Sue Blanchard, Eric Dadd, Mike Nocholas, Ian and Kay Martin, Marge and Jamie Clark, Alan and Nicola Clarke, Gary Taylor, Martin Ward, Tony McColley, Tony Rout, Alan Brook, Duncan and Virginia Bain-Smith, Chris and Sheila Lillywhite, and 'caterer supreme' Joyce Clarke.

Special thanks to the 'Executive Team' of Roger Ashby, Pater Burton, John Coveney, Vince Proto and to anyone I have omitted to mention, apologies and thanks also.
