Present day comments: This event was Ted Usher's first Sidcup Sixty win. He went on to win again in 1949, 1951 and 1953.

Within the report in Compass:

- There were 200 entrants, of which 50 were Sidcup members – a record? [It would be in 2020].
- "It was extremely bad luck that a would-be spectator collided with No. 53 George Young and caused injuries which later proved fatal."
- Between 25 and 30 members got together afterwards at the Dinkie for a chinwag. [The Dinkie was a café somewhere in the West Kingsdown area.]
