They can't hold pace-setting Alan!

ALAN KETLEY set the pace and was a nine-mark clear winner of the Sidcup Sixty Trial at Canada Heights, Swanley, Kent on Sunday.

Ketley's speed through the first two groups White Hill, (two marks lost over 12 sections) and Jackson's (a dab over three sections) brought him to the half way stage well in front.

Chris Harris with the same score at White Hill dropped five at Jacksons and then 17 more at the Heights.

Ketley seized the chance of an early number to get through before the frost melted under the strong sun and added only 12 at the Heights to his half way score.

Even so Ketley was outridden on section 19 by Keith Gillett and on section 27 where Brian Colwell had a dab to Ketley's footing out of the muddy pool.

Later starters Richard Whitebread and Ken Brooker found themselves well down the awards but Derek Adsett from well back rode magnificently to be fourth best.

Britain's two cinder stars, Malcolm Simmons and Dave Jessup, tied on marks lost but Simmons was faster through the special test mud slot by one-and-a-half seconds to keep ahead.
